JUDICIAL NOTES:

Conway J. Endorsement

The Receiver seeks to schedule a contempt motion against Mr. McSevney with respect to the alleged non-delivery of records (the Receiver no longer seeks to schedule the motion against Mr. Kyle). Motion materials have been prepared. Service of a contempt motion must be made strictly in accordance with the Rules of Civil Procedure.

Mr. McSevney attended today and is self-represented. I told him that a contempt motion is a very serious one that is quasi-criminal in nature. I urged him to seek legal advice and to contact the Law Society of Ontario to seek pro bono assistance if he is not otherwise able to retain counsel.

I have scheduled the motion for April 11, 2022 at 10 a.m. for two hours (any judge, confirmed with the Commercial List office). Mr. McSevney should advise counsel of this date as soon as possible to give counsel sufficient time to assist him and prepare for the motion.
