I am not satisfied on the material with the MA fees & disbursement in this matter.

700,000 on a 4 million deal with excessive. Proportionality has a role to play in costs of a receivership.

Mr. Bruker has appeared on his behalf and his company 867214 Ontario Limited and has concerns regarding the costs which will affect what 867214, as secured creditors, will receive.

In the circumstances today, the receiver may pay out to 867214 the amount considered in the Lawyers for BDO Canada Limited in its capacity as receiver of Combat Sports Inc. and Combat Sports, Inc.

Receiver's second report.

The balance of the relief supply is adjourned to be sold to the best use the Commission may find. In the meantime, the Receiver and its counsel are directed to meet with Mr. Brown and attempt to come to a resolution, failing which the matter will come back on for argument.
