The AG's act. Opposes the sale sought. It says the EVL should pay the legal expenses of the respondent's counsel ^{to do so:}. An affidavit says there is no cash flow. There has been no communication airt. There needs to be some practicality sought to hear. The expected cost is in the $10,000 range. TD wants to fill this and likely new loan cost is that amount. The purchase has asked for Ego. counsel to ensure the address is valid as properly represented. So that the sale can properly be approved.

The sale, if approved, will bring in cash that will be for the AG if the AG's position ultimately succeeds. I am satisfied the sale should be made.
