ENDORSEMENT OF JUSTICE CONWAY:

This is a motion for various orders brought by the Receiver. There was some confusion today about the start time and the Zoom line to be used. The Receiver's counsel had arranged for Neesons to provide the Zoom line and stream it to Sunrise Users who want to watch the proceedings on YouTube. I was only provided with the court's Zoom line. I have directed counsel to make arrangements with the Commercial List office if they are seeking to use a non-court line and stream the proceedings so that it can be cleared in advance in accordance with the court's protocol.

Further, there was insufficient time for the motion today. Mr. Wasiatycz will be addressing the court and contesting the part of the order that restricts the eligible claims against the Contested Funds. An hour is required to provide counsel and Mr. Wasiatycz an opportunity to properly address this issue. Accordingly, I have adjourned the motion to June 7, 2022 at noon for one hour (any judge, confirmed with the Commercial List office) to provide sufficient time.

In the meantime, the Receiver seeks an order requiring RBC to disclose certain information with respect to transactions to and from RBC for the purpose of identifying Sunrise Claimants. That order is unopposed and is acceptable to me. I am therefore granting it today. Order to go as signed by me and attached to this endorsement. This order is effective from today's date and is enforceable without the need for entry and filing.
