INTRODUCTION

1. On February 20, 2025 (the “Interim Receivership Date”), the Court of King’s Bench of Alberta (the “Court”) granted an Order (the “IR Order”) appointing BDO Canada Limited (“BDO”) as the interim receiver (the “Interim Receiver”) of Apex Nutri-Solutions Inc. (“Apex” or the “Company”). A copy of the IR Order is attached as Appendix “A”.
2. The IR Order stipulates that unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the date of termination of the Interim Receivership (the “Termination Date”) shall be the earliest of:
 - (a) The taking of possession of the Property by a receiver, within the meaning of subsection 243(2) of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (the “BIA”);
 - (b) The taking of possession by a trustee of the Debtor’s Property over which the interim receiver was appointed; and
 - (c) March 14, 2025, unless the Termination Date is extended or renewed by further Order of this Court prior to the expiry date.
3. The IR Order also contained a provision that the Company was directed not to continue purchasing broiler chickens in respect of the operations and any broiler chickens currently being raised shall be the last flock purchased by the Debtor during the pendency of the terms of the Interim Receivership Order.
4. Upon an ex-parte application submitted by ATB, on March 14, 2025, the Court granted a further Order (the “IR Extension Order”) extending the Termination Date as defined in the Interim Receivership Order to April 2, 2025. A copy of the IR Extension Order is attached as Appendix “B”.
5. The purpose of this report (the “Interim Receiver’s Report”) is to provide the Court with:
 - (a) background information on the Company, including a summary of its assets and liabilities, and details of the Company’s operations which had materially ceased prior to or as of the Interim Receivership Date as further described herein;
 - (b) the Interim Receiver’s assessment on the viability of the Company’s Broiler Chicken Operation (defined later herein) or residual operations;
 - (c) details of the Company’s 13-week cash flow forecast prepared in accordance with the Interim Receivership Order;

- (d) an update with respect to the Interim Receiver’s monitoring of the Company’s financial affairs under the terms of the Interim Receivership Order; and
 - (e) a summary of the material activities of the Interim Receiver since the Interim Receivership Date.
6. In addition to the granting of the IR Order, the Court also granted a Receivership Order appointing BDO Canada Limited as Receiver of 2175551 Alberta Ltd. (“217 AB”), which as discussed below, is the entity that holds the shares to Apex.
 7. Unless otherwise indicated, capitalized terms not defined in this Interim Receiver’s Report are as defined in the Affidavit of Mr. Rehman Mulji of ATB sworn on January 5, 2025 (the “Initial Mulji Affidavit”), the Affidavit of Mr. Rehman Mulji sworn on February 14, 2025 (the “Second Mulji Affidavit”) and/or the Interim Receivership Order, as applicable. All references to currency are in Canadian dollars unless otherwise noted.
 8. This Interim Receiver’s Report, together with other information and filings regarding these proceedings, will be posted on the Interim Receiver’s website at: <http://www.bdo.ca/Apex>

TERMS OF REFERENCE

9. In preparing this Interim Receiver’s Report, the Interim Receiver has relied upon unaudited financial or other information provided by management of the Company (“Management”) and/or its discussions with key stakeholders, among other sources of information (the “Information”).
10. The Interim Receiver has not audited, reviewed or otherwise attempted to verify the accuracy or completeness of the Information in a manner that would wholly or partially comply with Canadian Auditing Standards pursuant to the Chartered Professional Accountants Handbook. Accordingly, the Interim Receiver expresses no opinion or any other form of assurance in respect of the Information referred to or used in the Interim Receiver’s Report.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

11. Based on a corporate registry search dated February 3, 2025, Apex was incorporated in the Province of Alberta on November 20, 2003 and its directors are David Herbert, Steven Herbert and Murray Herbert, and its sole shareholder is 217 AB.

12. Based on a corporate registry search dated February 3, 2025, 217 AB was incorporated on February 26, 2019. Its directors are also David Herbert, Steven Herbert and Murray Herbert, and its shareholders are Murray Herbert, Kaylin Herbert, Tammy Herbert, Steven Herbert, David Herbert and Carolyn Herbert (collectively, the “Herberts”).
13. In 2019, Apex was acquired by the Herberts through a share purchase from its former owners. The shares were purchased by and through 217 AB, which the Receiver understands was established solely for this purpose.
14. Following the acquisition from the former owners by the Herberts, Apex carried on business operations including crushing of canola to make canola oil and meal, extruding to make a component of animal products, roasting soybean meal for animal feed, and the raising of broiler chickens.
15. Apex subsequently encountered several financial and/or operational challenges, including a boiler malfunction, a fire incident resulting in significant damage to certain key assets used in operations, the inability to obtain continued insurance coverage, and other market factors, which disrupted business operations, negatively impacting the Company, and ultimately leading to the cessation of all business segments other than the Broiler Chicken Operation (as defined and discussed below).
16. Additional background information on the Company and events leading up to the Interim Receivership Date are provided in the Initial Mulji Affidavit.

OPERATIONS

Historical Operations

17. Management advises that a fire incident at the Company’s premises in approximately March 2022 caused significant damage to both the feed mill facility and the equipment used in the extrusion and roasting processes, forcing the Company to cease the extrusion and roasting operations.
18. Subsequently, the canola crushing segment ceased in approximately July 2023 when the Company was unable to renew its insurance or obtain a new policy, leading to the termination of this operation and the dismissal of all employees except for two shareholder employees, Steven and David Herbert, who continued to manage the Broiler Chicken Operation and maintain the Apex Property (defined below).

Broiler Chicken Operation / Residual Operations

19. Following the cessation of the other business segments, the Company continued its broiler chicken operation, which involves purchasing a rotating flock of approximately 21,000 to 24,000 broiler chickens and raising them over approximately 35 to 37 days until they are mature enough for resale (the “Broiler Chicken Operation”). Maple Leaf Foods (“Maple Leaf”) is both the vendor for the chickens but also the purchaser of the grown chickens at the end of the period.
20. The Company did not own quota rights directly and would purchase the broiler chickens under chicken quotas leased by Apex. The Interim Receiver understands that one of these leases was terminated as of March 4, 2025, which would appear to be in violation of the Stay of Proceedings contained in the Interim Receivership Order but given the prohibition of the purchase of broiler chickens, together with the fact that the Interim Receiver was not appointed over the broiler chickens, as well as the broiler chickens being explicitly excluded from the terms of the Interim Receivership Order, the Interim Receiver is of the opinion that it does not have a material impact on the Apex operations during the period of the Interim Receivership. Further, based on the Interim Receiver’s discussions with the Company and a review of the “Operations Policy Manual” established by the Alberta Chicken Producers (“ACP”), it appears that these leased quotas are not readily assignable.
21. The Receiver understands from discussions with Management, that the number of chickens that were to be delivered to Apex was determined by the ACB, who would provide an advance placement notice to which the Company can agree or disagree, and that this placement notice is typically received and agreed to approximately four to six weeks in advance of delivery. The Company informed the Interim Receiver that a period of at least two weeks is required between flocks to minimize the risk of disease transmission, which is set by the ACB.
22. As of the date of the IR Order, the Company was between chicken broiler flocks, with the last flock delivered to Maple Leaf on, or around February 12, 2025.
23. Management advised that the Company was scheduled to receive the next flock on or around approximately February 28, 2025, however, as outlined above, the IR Order directed that the Company cease purchasing any further broiler chickens. Consequently, the Company cancelled its next order, and the Broiler Chicken Operation effectively ceased as a result.

24. The Company has advised that as a result of being prohibited from purchasing any further chickens pursuant to the IR Order, it will be unable to continue with the Broiler Chicken Operation following the Termination Date.
25. During the period of the Interim Receivership and as a result of the prohibition of Apex purchasing additional chickens, a third party expressed interest in potentially entering into a lease arrangement for the Apex barn to grow chickens purchased by that party given what was represented to the Interim Receiver to be a shortage of chicken barn space. However, following consultation with the Interim Receiver as to the potential economics of such a transaction, Management indicated serious concerns with respect to their ability to have the barn brought up to a suitable heat, and other logistical challenges to placing a flock on relatively short notice at the risk that there could be a greater proportion of chicken fatalities. Therefore, this arrangement did not proceed.
26. The Interim Receiver reviewed historical financial information provided by Management for the period April 1, 2024 to February 20, 2025, attached as Appendix “C” whereas prior year’s results were not reviewed in detail as they included amounts associated with the Company’s former business segments which ceased on, or prior to July 2023.
27. The Receiver has summarized these financial results in the below in an attempt to illustrate the profitability, or lack thereof, attributable to the Broiler Chicken Operation when factoring in the interest associated with the ATB indebtedness.

Income Statement (Residual Operations)
April 1, 2024 to February 20, 2025
Sales
Broiler chicken revenue	$ 659,711
Sales	22,858
House rental income	20,000
	702,569
Expenses
Broiler chicken expenses	596,302
Insurance	69,670
Employee related expenses	57,751
Utilities	37,494
Other (property taxes, R&M, other)	17,084
	778,301
Operating income (loss)	(75,732)
Other income (expense)
Proceeds from ATB predation	75,645
Interest and misc. other	12,585
Accrued interest on ATB indebtedness	(162,195)
Professional and legal fees	(211,589)
	(285,553)
Net income (loss)	(361,285)

28. The Interim Receiver notes the following based on its discussions with the Company:
- (a) The sales of approximately $22,000 relate some residual oil and meal inventory sold by the Company following conclusion of that business segment;
 - (b) The “proceeds from ATB predation” included in other income (expenses) relate to previously garnished funds that were collected by ATB during the reported period; and
 - (c) The professional and legal fees included in other income (expenses) relate primarily to legal fees incurred by the Company in the events leading up to the Interim Receivership Date but also include professional fees to the Company’s payroll provider and accountant.
29. As illustrated by the above, when including the debt service payments to ATB, the Broiler Chicken Operations does not appear to be financially viable, which we understand is consistent with Management’s understanding, absent a material restructuring of the ATB indebtedness.

FINANCIAL POSITION

Assets:

30. The Company’s assets are summarized in the table below based on an internal unaudited balance sheet as of February 20, 2025, with the Interim Receiver providing additional commentary below:

Asset Description	Approximate Book Value
Cash	$ 429,672
Receivables and deposits	27,858
Inventory	109,429
Due from related parties	145,400
Land and building	1,730,888
Other fixed assets	630,170
	$ 3,073,416

- (a) Cash – the book value represented in the table above is the Company’s actual aggregate cash balance as of the Interim Receivership Date. This includes approximately $414,400 held in bank accounts with ATB which are currently frozen and inaccessible by the Company and an additional $15,300 held in accounts established by the Company with the Royal Bank of Canada. It is noted that the Company had established two bank accounts with RBC, with one appearing to have the operating name of Arable; notwithstanding this, the Company advises that all cash transactions in this Arable bank account are on account of Apex, therefore reflected in the Company’s accounting records as same. The Company ceased using this Arable bank account at the Interim Receivership Date and there is currently $Nil cash in this account;
- (b) Receivables and deposits – this primarily relates to a goods and services tax (“GST”) refund and other miscellaneous deposits / refunds recorded in the unaudited books and records of the Company. The Company advises that all funds attributable to the sale of the last broiler chicken flock had been collected by the Company prior to the Interim Receivership Date, which based on a review of the accounting records, these funds appear to have been received on February 14, 2025;
- (c) Inventory – the Company advises that the inventory relates to miscellaneous canola inventory and spare parts. The Interim Receiver has not investigated this in detail as it is unlikely that there would be material value in any residual inventory of the Company after professional costs in the event of a sale through a Receivership;
- (d) Due from related parties – these are comprised of balances owed from the following related parties:

- i. Arable Automation (“Arable”) – $38,905. Based on a corporate registry search dated March 14, 2025, Arable was incorporated in the Province of Alberta on August 28, 2023 and its sole shareholder and director is Kaylin Herbert. The Interim Receiver was advised that Arable operates as an agricultural GPS systems sales and services business and that Apex funded various start-up costs for Arable from 2024 to 2025 as illustrated by the attached account details on Appendix “D”. Lastly, Management advises that $25,000 is anticipated to be repaid to Apex in May 2025 as reflected in the Cash Flow Forecast (defined and discussed later herein), which if partially repaid as communicated, would leave a balance of approximately $14,000 due from Arable;
 - ii. Murray and Carolyn Herbert’s farm (the “M&C Herbert Farm”) – $43,755. The Interim Receiver was advised that Apex had provided funding of $60,000 to the M&C Herbert Farm in November 2024 to assist with liquidity constraints, with approximately $16,200 in offsetting entries recorded as illustrated on the attached Appendix “E”. As discussed below, this balance listed at the Interim Receivership Date was repaid in full to Apex on March 5, 2025;
 - iii. 217 AB – $62,740. Management advises that Apex provided funds to 217 AB, which intercompany amounts are deemed to be uncollectible given the receivership of 217 AB and the Interim Receiver’s understanding that other than the shares of Apex, 217 AB has negligible other assets;
- (e) Land and building – this includes the real property owned by Apex, municipally described as 19543 TWP RD 440, Edberg, Alberta and legally described as follows:

PLAN 1820044
LOT 1
EXCEPTING THEREOUT ALL MINES AND MINERALS AREA: 8.53 HECTARES (21.08 ACRES) MORE OR LESS (hereafter the “Apex Lands”).

The Apex Lands encompass approximately 21 acres of bare land and includes the following structures/buildings:

- i. An approximate 3,620 square foot feed mill facility (built between 2006–2012), which was used for the canola pressing, milling, and extrusion processes previously conducted by the Company. As a result of the fire incident, certain processing equipment and parts of the outside building structure, were significantly damaged, such that the Company was forced to cease two of its business segments. The Company had purchased certain panelling to repair the outside of this facility, however, these panels were never installed, and no further remediation work was completed to repair any of the fire damage to the feed facility;
 - ii. An approximate 14,520 square foot poultry broiler barn (built in 1996), with adjacent feed storage, custom built for the Broiler Chicken Operation;
 - iii. Two dwellings where two shareholders/employees and their families currently reside. One is approximately 2,610 square feet and the other is approximately 1,948 square feet which the Interim Receiver has been advised that there is no formal tenancy agreement between the parties; and
 - iv. An approximate 2,960 square foot storage shed; and
- (f) Other fixed assets – this includes various grain storage bins and tanks located at the Apex Lands, and various trucks, tractors and other farming type equipment owned by the Company which were formerly used in operations.

Liabilities

31. Based on the Initial Mulji Affidavit, as of January 2, 2025, ATB is owed approximately $3,530,160 plus accruing interest and costs. To secure this indebtedness, ATB was granted various security interests over the assets of Apex and 217 AB and guarantees from David Herbert, Murray Herbert and Carolyn Herbert secured by certain personal property of the guarantors.
32. Based on a personal property registry search dated February 3, 2025, there are no other parties registered as having a security interest in the personal property of Apex. Furthermore, based on a review of a copy of title for the Apex Lands dated March 12, 2025, there are no other creditors that have registered an interest on the Apex Lands.

33. As of the date of this Interim Receiver's Report and based on its discussions with the Company and a review of the information provided by the Company, the Interim Receiver is not aware of any priority amounts owed in respect of outstanding wages, GST, source deductions and property taxes. However, approximately $8,500 may be owed in respect of vacation pay to the two shareholder employees.
34. Based on the Company's unaudited books and records, approximately $331,171 is owed to the Company's unsecured creditors. The most material unsecured creditor appears to be a creditor listed as Ace in the Hole, which is owed approximately $125,000, with the balance owed to approximately 10 other unsecured creditors. The Interim Receiver understands that none of these unpaid suppliers, who may also be considered a "farmer" under the BIA, had delivered goods to the Company within the last 15 days, such that any would have a priority claim under section 81.2 of the BIA if a receiver or trustee were appointed over the Company.

CASH FLOW FORECAST

35. The Company, with the assistance of the Interim Receiver, prepared a 13-week cash flow forecast from February 23, 2025 to May 24, 2025 (the "Cash Flow Forecast"), a copy of which is attached as Appendix "F", and is based on the following material assumptions:
 - (a) As noted above, the Company was in between chicken flocks as of the Interim Receivership Date. Further, pursuant to the IR Order, the Company was prohibited from purchasing additional broiler chickens. Accordingly, the Cash Flow Forecast does not include any forecast receipts or disbursements specific to Broiler Chicken Operation;
 - (b) The projected receipts from related parties relate to repayment of the amount owing by the M&C Herberts Farm (approximately $44,000) and a partial repayment of the amount owing by Arable (approximately $25,000, leaving an approximately $14,000 balance remaining from this related party);

- (c) The projected disbursements relate to amounts viewed as critical to maintaining the Apex Lands and/or necessary to preserve ongoing enterprise value. The Interim Receiver notes that Steven and David Herbert both live on the property and accordingly each owe monthly rent to Apex of approximately $1,000. However as mentioned earlier, both are also employees of Apex and earn nominal income in respect of these duties which effectively offsets rent and utilities payable by them to Apex;
 - (d) Beginning cash balance is the Company's cash balance at that date, excluding the funds with ATB which were previously frozen prior to the Interim Receivership Date; and
 - (e) The Cash Flow Forecast does not include the monthly debt service payments to ATB which total approximately $24,700. The Interim Receiver understands that Apex has not been servicing this debt since approximately October 2023.
36. The Company initially proposed to pay certain expenses incurred by Apex prior to the Interim Receivership Date. However, in consultation with the Interim Receiver, these proposed expenditures were not viewed as critical payments necessary to preserve ongoing enterprise value. Accordingly, these amounts were not paid during the period of the IR Order.
37. The Receiver has prepared a forecast to actual analysis below indicating that there was not a material deviation from the Cash Flow Forecast, largely due to the limited activity of Apex during the forecast period.

MONITORING

38. Pursuant to the IR Order, the Interim Receiver established a monitoring protocol. The Company would supply the Interim Receiver with banking transaction reports and other information on a weekly basis and would submit expenses for prior approval by the Interim Receiver. Furthermore, the Interim Receiver compared the actual cash receipts and disbursements relative to the Cash Flow Forecast.
39. The Interim Receiver notes that the Company was very cooperative in the requests made by the Interim Receiver and in the supply of information pursuant to the Interim Receivership Order.
40. The table below compares the Company's actual results relative to the same period included in the Cash Flow Forecast:

Forecast to Actual Results February 23, 2025 to March 15, 2025	FORECAST	ACTUAL	VARIANCE
Receipts
From related parties	$ 44,788	$ 44,788	$ -
	44,788	44,788	-
Disbursements
Utilities	5,318	5,318	-
Insurance	6,792	5,040	1,752
Other	659	531	128
	12,769	10,889	1,880
Net cash inflow (outflow)	32,019	33,899	(1,880)
Cash - beginning	15,284	15,284	-
Net change	32,019	33,899	(1,880)
Cash - closing	$ 47,303	$ 49,183	(1,880)

41. The Interim Receiver notes the following:
- (a) The amount due from M&C Herberts Farm was repaid on March 5, 2025 as reflected above; and
 - (b) The variance in respect of insurance is due to a timing difference, as the forecasted insurance payment was withdrawn from the Company's bank account on March 17, 2025.

ACTIVITIES OF THE INTERIM RECEIVER

42. The Interim Receiver's material activities since the Interim Receivership Date have included, inter alia:
- (a) attending the Apex Lands shortly following the Interim Receivership Date to tour the premises, take photos, and meet with representatives of the Company;
 - (b) conducting various meetings with management of the Company to gain an understanding of the Company, former ceased operations, and the Broiler Chicken Operation, as well as discuss other matters related to the Interim Receivership;
 - (c) preparing an information request list and reviewing various financial and other information submitted by the Company;
 - (d) assisting with the preparation of and reviewing the Cash Flow Forecast prepared by the Company;
 - (e) establishing a monitoring protocol and monitoring the Company's financial affairs in accordance with the IR Order;

- (f) corresponding with key stakeholders, being ATB, the Herberts, and/or respective legal counsel, as applicable; and
- (g) attending to various other administrative items in relation to the interim receivership.

PROFESSIONAL FEES

- 43. The Interim Receiver and its counsel will be providing an update on its fees in a supplemental report to be filed in advance of the termination of the Interim Receivership proceedings.

NEXT STEPS

- 44. The Interim Receiver understands that a further application is set for April 2, 2025, in respect of certain elements of ATB's February 20, 2025 application to the Court which were adjourned. The Interim Receiver further understands that ATB is intending to seek the appointment of BDO as receiver and manager ("Receiver") over Apex. Should the Court grant ATB's requested relief, BDO has provided its consent to act as Receiver.

All of which is respectfully submitted this 24th day of March, 2025.
