Dear Mesdames/Sirs:

Re: Breach of Order Made After Application (the “Receivership Order”) - Royal Bank of Canada v. Briere Production Group Inc. et al, Vancouver Registry No. S-S-S251915 (the “Action”)

We are legal counsel for BDO Canada Limited (the “Receiver”) in the above noted Action and we write in respect of the Receivership Order pronounced by the Honourable Justice Walker on April 10, 2025 made effective May 1, 2025 in which the court appointed the Receiver as receiver over of all of the assets, undertakings and property of Briere Production Group Inc. and Briere Transportation Ltd. (the “Debtors”).

We understand that you are counsel for Christopher Briere, the director and officer of each of the Debtors (“Mr. Briere”).

Take notice that Mr. Briere is in breach of the Receivership Order, by reason of his failure to provide access and cooperation to the Receiver. Between May 5, 2025 through to May 27, 2025 the Receiver made email requests (the “Receiver’s Requests”), for amongst other things, vital information in order to access the Debtor’s computer servers, to locate motor vehicles, recreational vehicles, trailers and truck tractors, and to obtain further information regarding the Debtor’s inventory, equipment, assets, business affairs and accounts receivables. A copy of the Receiver’s Requests and a copy of the Receivership Order are enclosed to this correspondence for your ease of reference.

Pursuant to paragraph 4 of the Receivership Order, the order applies to the i) Debtors ii) all of the Debtors’ current and former directors, officers, employees, agents, accountants, legal counsel and shareholders, and all other persons acting on its instructions or behalf; and iii) all other individuals, firms, corporations, governmental bodies or agencies, or other entities having notice of the Receivership Order (collectively, “Persons” and each a “Person”).

Despite the Receiver’s Requests and in breach of the Receivership Order paragraph 4, Mr. Briere has failed, refused or neglected to (a) disclose to the Receiver the existence of any Property in his possession or control or in the possession or control of other Persons, (b) grant immediate and continued access to the Property to the Receiver, and (c) deliver all such Property to the Receiver (“Breach #1”).

In breach of the Receivership Order paragraph 5, and despite the Receiver’s Requests, Mr. Briere has failed, refused or neglected to advise the Receiver of the existence of any books, documents, securities, contracts, orders, corporate and accounting records, and any other papers, records and information of any kind related to the business affairs of the Debtors, and any computer programs, computer tapes, computer disks, or other data storage media containing any such information (collectively, the “Records”), (“Breach #2”).

Gowling WLG (Canada) LLP is a member of Gowling WLG, an international law firm which consists of independent and autonomous entities providing services around the world. Our structure is explained in more detail at gowlingwg.com/legal.

In breach of the Receivership Order paragraph 6, and despite the Receiver's Requests, Mr. Briere has failed, refused or neglected to permit the Receiver to make, retain and take away copies of the Records and have access to and make use of accounting, computer and software ("Breach #3").

In breach of the Receivership Order paragraph 7, and despite the Receiver's Requests, Mr. Briere has failed, refused or neglected to give unfettered access of the Records to the Receiver for the purpose of allowing the Receiver to recover and fully copy all the information contained in the Records ("Breach #4").

In further breach of the Receivership Order paragraph 7, and despite the Receiver's Requests, Mr. Briere has failed, refused or neglected to provide the Receiver with assistance in gaining immediate access to the information contained in the Records, failing to provide the Receiver with instructions on the use of computer and other systems and failing to provide the Receiver with access codes, account names and account numbers required to gain access to the information contained in the Records ("Breach #5").

As of today's date all of the Receiver's Requests remaining outstanding. Despite this the Receiver specifically demands that the Debtors provide the current location or last known location for the following two (2) motor vehicles on an urgent basis:

- 1) 2020 Grand Design Momentum 351M with VIN# 573FM4029L1114898; and
- 2) 2023 Ford F450 with VIN# 1FT8W4DM4PED65445,

(the "Urgent Location Request").

As a result of the Debtor's failure to comply with the Receiver's Requests and as a result of Breach #1, Breach #2, Breach #3, Breach #4 and Breach #5 (collectively hereinafter referred to as the "Breaches") Mr. Briere is in breach of the Receivership Order and potentially subject to a finding that he is in contempt of court. The Receiver hereby demands that Mr. Briere take steps to cure the Breaches and comply with the Receiver's Requests and Urgent Location Request no later than end of business day on June 10, 2025. If Mr. Briere fails to cure the Breaches and provide the Urgent Location Request by June 10, 2025, the Receiver may exercise any and all remedies available to it under the Receivership Order, or at law or otherwise, including seeking an order that Mr. Briere is in contempt of court. Please note that remedies available to the Receiver in a contempt of court hearing include among other things, fines and the issuance of an arrest warrant.

We trust the above to be in order, please govern yourself accordingly.

Yours truly,

GOWLING WLG (CANADA) LLP

The purchaser of any Property shall be entitled to continue to use the personal information provided to it, and related to the Property purchased, in a manner which is in all material respects identical to the prior use of such information by the Debtors, and shall return all other personal information to the Receiver, or ensure that all other personal information is destroyed.

LIMITATION ON ENVIRONMENTAL LIABILITIES

16. Nothing in this Order shall require the Receiver to occupy or to take control, care, charge, possession or management (separately and/or collectively, "Possession") of any of the Property that might be environmentally contaminated, might be a pollutant or a contaminant, or might cause or contribute to a spill, discharge, release, or deposit of a substance contrary to any federal, provincial or other law relating to the protection, conservation, enhancement, remediation or rehabilitation of the environment or relating to the disposal of waste or other contamination (collectively "Environmental Legislation"), provided however that nothing herein shall exempt the Receiver from any duty to report or make disclosure imposed by applicable Environmental Legislation.

17. The Receiver shall not, as a result of this Order or anything done in pursuance of the Receiver's duties and powers under this Order, be deemed to be in Possession of any of the Property within the meaning of any Environmental Legislation, unless the Receiver is actually in possession.
18. Notwithstanding anything in federal or provincial law, the Receiver is not personally liable in that position for any environmental condition that arises or environmental damage that occurred:
 - (a) before the Receiver's appointment; or,
 - (b) after the Receiver's appointment, unless it is established that the condition arose or the damage occurred as a result of the Receiver's gross negligence or wilful misconduct.
19. Notwithstanding anything in federal or provincial law, but subject to paragraph 17 of this Order, where an order is made which has the effect of requiring the Receiver to remedy any environmental condition or environmental damage affecting the Property, if the Receiver complies with the BIA section 14.06(4), the Receiver is not personally liable for the failure to comply with the order and is not personally liable for any costs that are or would be incurred by any Person in carrying out the terms of the order.

LIMITATION ON THE RECEIVER'S LIABILITY

20. The Receiver shall incur no liability or obligation as a result of its appointment or the carrying out the provisions of this Order, save and except:
 - (a) any gross negligence or wilful misconduct on its part; or
 - (b) amounts in respect of obligations imposed specifically on receivers by applicable legislation.

Nothing in this Order shall derogate from the protections afforded the Receiver by Section 14.06 of the BIA or by any other applicable legislation.

RECEIVER'S ACCOUNTS

21. The Receiver and its legal counsel, if any, are granted a charge (the "Receiver's Charge") on the Property as security for the payment of their fees and disbursements, in each case at their standard rates, in respect of these proceedings, whether incurred before or after the making of this Order. The Receiver's Charge shall form a first charge on the Property in priority to all security interests, trusts, liens, charges and encumbrances, statutory or otherwise, in favour of any Person, but subject to Sections 14.06(7), 81.4(4), and 81.6(2) of the BIA.

22. The Receiver and its legal counsel shall pass their accounts from time to time, and for this purpose the accounts of the Receiver and its legal counsel are referred to a judge of the Supreme Court of British Columbia and may be heard on a summary basis.
23. Prior to the passing of its accounts, the Receiver shall be at liberty from time to time to apply reasonable amounts, out of the monies in its hands, against its fees and disbursements, including legal fees and disbursements, incurred at the standard rates and charges of the Receiver or its counsel, and such amounts shall constitute advances against its remuneration and disbursements when and as approved by this Court.

FUNDING OF THE RECEIVERSHIP

24. The Receiver is authorized and empowered as of the Effective Date to borrow by way of a revolving credit or otherwise, such monies from time to time as it may consider necessary or desirable, provided that the outstanding principal amount does not exceed $100,000 (or such greater amount as this Court may by further Order authorize) at any time, at such rate or rates of interest as the Receiver deems advisable for such period or periods of time as it may arrange, for the purpose of funding the exercise of the powers and duties conferred upon the Receiver by this Order, including interim expenditures. The whole of the Property shall be and is charged by way of a fixed and specific charge (the "Receiver's Borrowings Charge") as security for the payment of the monies borrowed, together with interest and charges thereon, in priority to all security interests, trusts, liens, charges and encumbrances, statutory or otherwise, in favour of any Person, but subordinate in priority to the Receiver's Charge and the charges as set out in Sections 14.06(7), 81.4(4), and 81.6(2) of the BIA.
25. Neither the Receiver's Borrowings Charge nor any other security granted by the Receiver in connection with its borrowings under this Order shall be enforced without leave of this Court.
26. The Receiver is authorized to issue certificates substantially in the form annexed as Schedule "B" hereto (the "Receiver's Certificates") for any amount borrowed by it pursuant to this Order.
27. The monies from time to time borrowed by the Receiver pursuant to this Order or any further order of this Court and any and all Receiver's Certificates evidencing the same or any part thereof shall rank on a pari passu basis, unless otherwise agreed to by the holders of any prior issued Receiver's Certificates.

ALLOCATION

28. Any interested party may apply to this Court on notice to any other party likely to be affected for an order allocating the Receiver's Charge and Receiver's Borrowings Charge amongst the Property.

SERVICE AND NOTICE OF MATERIALS

29. The Receiver shall establish and maintain a website in respect of these proceedings at ~~[WEB ADDRESS]~~ (the "Website") and shall post there as soon as practicable:
- (a) all materials prescribed by statute or regulation to be made publicly available, including pursuant to Rule 10-2 of the Supreme Court Civil Rules; and,

30. Any Person who is served with a copy of this Order and that wishes to be served with any future application or other materials in these proceedings must provide to counsel for each of the Receiver and the Applicant a demand for notice in the form attached as Schedule C (the "Demand for Notice"). The Receiver and the Applicant need only provide further notice in respect of these proceedings to Persons that have delivered a properly completed Demand for Notice. The failure of any Person to provide a properly completed Demand for Notice releases the Receiver and the Applicant from any requirement to provide further notice in respect of these proceedings until such Person delivers a properly completed Demand for Notice.
31. The Receiver shall maintain a service list identifying all parties that have delivered a properly completed Demand for Notice (the "Service List"). The Receiver shall post and maintain an up-to-date form of the Service List on the Website.
32. Any interested party, including the Receiver, may serve any court materials in these proceedings by mail to any party on the Service List that has not provided a facsimile number or email address, and materials delivered by mail shall be deemed received five (5) days after mailing.
33. 34. The Receiver and its counsel are authorised to serve or distribute this Order, any other orders and any other materials as may be reasonably required in these proceedings, including any notices or other correspondence, by forwarding copies by facsimile or by email to the Debtors' creditors or other interested parties and their advisors. For greater certainty, any such distribution or service shall be deemed to be in satisfaction of any legal or juridical obligation and notice requirements within the meaning of clause 3(c) of the Electronic Commerce Protection Regulations.

GENERAL

35. Any interested party may apply to this Court to vary or amend this Order on not less than seven (7) clear business days' notice to the Service List and to any other party who may be affected by the variation or amendment, or upon such other notice, if any, as this Court may order.
36. The Receiver may from time to time apply to this Court for advice and directions in the discharge of its powers and duties hereunder.
37. Nothing in this Order shall prevent the Receiver from acting as a trustee in bankruptcy of the Debtors.
38. This Court requests the aid, recognition and assistance of any court, tribunal, regulatory or administrative body having jurisdiction, wherever located, to give effect to this Order and to assist the Receiver and its agents in carrying out the terms of this Order. All such courts, tribunals and regulatory and administrative bodies are respectfully requested to make such orders and to provide such assistance to the Receiver, as an officer of this Court, as may be necessary or desirable to give effect to this Order or to assist the Receiver and its agents in carrying out the terms of this Order.
39. Good afternoon Geoffrey,

I am writing further to the enclosed letter dated June 5, 2025 in which we ask that Chris Briere take steps to cure the Breaches no later than the end of business day on June 10, 2025. However, to date we have not received any of the information requested in the letter and your client remains in breach of the Receivership Order. Can you please provide me the requested information or with an update. My client has given our firm instructions to bring a contempt of court application which I am hoping we can avoid. I look forward to hearing from you as soon as possible.
